

ANTS OF MOUNT BALBI, BOUGAINVILLE

Fulakora celata (Mann, 1919)

Amblyopone australis Erichson, 1842

Anochetus isolatus Mann, 1919

Gnamptogenys solomonensis Lattke, 2004

Myopias sp.2

Leptogenys diminuta (Smith, 1857)

Odontomachus saevissimus Smith, 1858

Oecophylla smaragdina (Fabricius, 1775)

Camponotus chloroticus Emery, 1897

Anonychomyrma dimorpha (Viehmeyer, 1912)

Strumigenys new sp.1

Pheidole sp.4 new sp

Tetramorium sp.1

Vollenhovia sp.2

Eurhopalothrix procera (Emery, 1897)

This poster is based on a research collaboration with the communities and landowners in Mount Balbi region. For more information, visit Rotokas Ecotourism (<https://rotokasecotourism.com>), Ants of New Guinea (www.newguineants.org) and New Guinea Binatang Research Centre (www.ngbinatang.com) Photos and design: © Milan Janda (jandamil@gmail.com) and Regina Guillen (regina.guillen.a@gmail.com) Produced by: New Guinea Binatang Research Centre, Madang, PNG; National Laboratory of Ecological Analysis and Synthesis, UNAM, Mexico; and Biology Center, Czech Academy of Sciences Support: The National Geographic Society